

SANSAD

(South Asian Network for Secularism and Democracy)

invites you to an afternoon Forum to hear the experiences in Pakistan and India from

Drs. Pritam and Kundan Rohila, of Portland, Oregon

(with Association for Communal Harmony in Asia)
and

Captain Muhammad Mahtab of Vancouver

(formerly in Pakistani Navy and Marine)

on their recent trip to Pakistan and India.

The three were part of a 21-member delegation of Non-Resident Indians and Non-Resident Pakistanis living in Canada, the USA and UK, which recently went on an unprecedented

Joint Peace and Goodwill Mission to Pakistan and India

The two-week trip took the delegation to Karachi, Peshawar, Islamabad, Rawalpindi, Gujrat and Lahore in Pakistan, and Amritsar, Delhi, Jammu & Kashmir, Amhedabad and Mumbai in India. They met government leaders, leaders of political parties, grass-root organizations, academics, journalists, artists, and of course lots of ordinary people.

And the Delegation conveyed the message to the rulers of the two countries that good, peaceful, neighborly relations between India and Pakistan, and the well-being of the people in the two countries, are matters of as much concern to the Indians and Pakistanis living abroad as they are to those living within the countries.

Participatory, interactive, discussion will be followed by recital of poems and ghazals by the local artists.
Peace & friendship-provoking refreshments will also be available for all.
