mousetrap.”

Albert Einstein

With the Doomsday Clock set at two-and-a-half minutes to midnight by The Bulletin of Atomic Scientists at the beginning of 2017, the threat of nuclear holocaust is more urgent than ever. Scientists, scholars, and activist from India, Pakistan, Canada, and the US, including indigenous activists come together to urge action.

South Asian Network for Secularism and Democracy (SANSAD), with the support of Hari Sharma Foundation, Institute for the Humanities, SFU, School for International Studies, SFU, and Committee of Progressive Pakistani Canadians (CPPC)
